The ED had initiated investigation on the basis of an FIR filed by the Lokayuktha Police, Mysore, over alleged illegal allotment of sites by MUDA.

Search operations were conducted by the ED on October 18, 2024, and October 28, 2024. They revealed that the sites were allotted in gross violation of various orders.

The search operations also revealed a deep nexus between MUDA officers and real estate dealers. Evidences also revealed payment of cash for allotment of sites as compensation and approval of layouts.

Earlier, in the case, the ED had provisionally attached 283 illegally allotted MUDA sites and three personal properties. Further, GT Dinesh Kumar, former Commissioner of MUDA, was arrested. — TNS

sive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls in various states and Union Territories, senior counsel Rakesh Dwivedi, representing the poll panel, cautioned against importing American notions of "due process" into Greenland also. Here, the petitioners (against SIR exercise) want to import that," Dwivedi told a Bench of Chief Justice of India Surya Kant and Justice Joymalya Bagchi.

CJI Kant said Indian courts

"fair, just and reasonable", and urged the Supreme Court to dismiss petitions challenging it. A roving and fishing inquiry into the SIR cannot be done at the behest of a few NGOs and politicians, he submitted.

Mumbai set to have woman Mayor from general category

MUMBAI, JANUARY 22

Mumbai's next mayor will be a woman from the general category, as determined by a lottery held on Thursday, an official said, even as the Opposition said the procedure was "fixed" to suit the ruling parties.

The Shiv Sena (UBT)'s hopes of securing the Mumbai mayoral post were dashed after the lottery draw, as it had pinned its chances on the possibility of the post being reserved for a ST woman, as both eligible candidates in that category belonged to Uddhav Thackeray's party.

The lottery determines the category for which the mayor's post will be reserved. Once the category is announced, eligible candidates file their nominations. — PTI

6 die in C'garh

BALODABAZAR, JANUARY 22

Six workers were killed and five sustained burn injuries when hot ash fell on them following an explosion at a steel plant in Chhattisgarh's Balodabazar-Bhatapara district on Thursday morning, officials said.

The incident occurred around 9:40 am at Real Ispat and Power Ltd located in Bakulahi village, DC Deepak Soni said.

Thick black smoke was seen billowing from the factory from
