8 pvt med colleges in Maha allowed up to ₹4.5 lakh fee hike after review

Vijeta Bhatnagar/etimesofindia.com

Mumbai: At least eight private medical colleges in the state sought review of their fees fixed by The Regulating Authority (FRA) after the ongoing academic session. While many of these had demanded higher fees in their original proposals, in some cases, the fee was fixed at Rs 30 lakh. FRA has allowed marginal hikes of Rs 80,000 to up to Rs 4.5 lakh.

The latter was allowed in the case of Vedanta Institute of Medical Sciences in Palghat in its MD-MS programme. Vedanta originally demanded an annual fee of Rs 32 lakh for the programme in its revision proposal submitted to FRA. The authority allowed an annual fee of Rs 37 lakh for PG courses.

There was a govt order issued when the institute was established under Companies Act, which had to follow the fee for the previous academic session, which was around Rs 18 lakh, said an FRA official.

In the case of another institute - Smt Kashobai Navale Medical College - it claimed in its revision proposal that the number of staff members considered while fixing the fee was lower than the actual strength, according to the FRA official. After the documents were reviewed, it was also allowed around Rs 14 lakh hike from the fees fixed originally. Its fee for the MBBS programme was earlier Rs 10.91 lakh per annum, which was revised to Rs 12.34 lakh.

Six other colleges too got their fees reviewed after producing documents. Dr NY Taseganoni Institute of Medical Science, Karjat, demanded Rs 20 lakh fee, but was allowed only Rs 6.21 lakh. It was revised to Rs 7.65 lakh. Parbhani Medical College, ACPM Dhule, NRP Salve Medical College, Naurpur, SMBT Institute of Medical Science, Jalpurji, got their fees reviewed by up to Rs 1 lakh.

Low in its case. It also claimed its admissions were delayed in a particular year, due to which expenses were carried forward to the following year's accounts. Based on this, the revised fee was allowed, although it is still lower than the fee for the previous academic session, which was around Rs 18 lakh, said an FRA official.

All e-bike taxis to go off road as Maha govt cancels permits

Chittaranjan Tembharkar/etimesofindia.com

Mumbai: The state govt govt has cancelled the temporary licenses issued to e-bike aggregators Uber, Ola and Rapido to operate e-bike taxi services after finding that the companies had failed to fulfil the required documents and comply with licence conditions, transport minister Pratap Sarnaik told the legislative council on Monday.

He also announced a statewide crackdown on illegal petrol bike taxis, saying authorities have been directed to seize such vehicles and register criminal cases against operators and companies where violations are detected. The minister said many petrol bikes - including several registered outside Maharashtra - were being used instead of permitted electric bikes and were also violating riders' rules outside the state, reports Chittaranjan Tembharkar.

The action follows violation of the Maharashtra E-Bike Taxi Rules 2018, from all in line with the Centre's motor vehicle aggregator guidelines. The rules mandate that bike taxi services must operate only on 100% electric two-wheelers.

Union leader welcomes decision on auto permits

The decision came amid a sharp rise in the number of CNG auto permits, particularly in the suburbs. The population of CNG autos operating in Mumbai's suburban belt is now nearing the 3 lakh mark. Officials said around 60% of Mumbai's autos operate in the western suburbs, with the rest concentrated in the eastern suburbs.

Welcoming the decision, union leader Keshav Kshirsagar from Maharashtra Kamgar Sabha said, "As auto permits were distributed in far greater numbers than needed across the state, it had become difficult for existing drivers to earn adequate business. At the same time, the increasing number of autos in major cities was also making the problem of traffic jams severe."
